The living language is constantly changing in the process of its implementation, the change and development of the language is considered a necessary condition for its survival. National-ethnic, philosophical, moral, artistic-aesthetic views manifested in social activity are first embodied through language. President Of The Republic Of Uzbekistan Sh.M.The decree of Mirziyoev on October 21, 2019 "on measures to radically increase the prestige and position of the Uzbek language as a state language"and the decree of October 20, 2020 "on measures to further develop the Uzbek language in our country and improve language policy"and numerous decisions separately mention the need to increase the role and prestige of the state language at an international level, In particular, special attention is paid to increasing the prestige of the Uzbek language as a language of Science, and the need to increase the effectiveness of scientific research related to the historical progress of our native language and its prospects, and to radically improve its quality is emphasized.

Today, Uzbek linguistics has fully reached a new qualitative stage, dramatically expanding the scope of serious research on issues of Applied and theoretical linguistics, and in the context of globalization, Uzbek linguistics has entered the world arena with the practical proof of the concept of "man is the center of the universe.

In scientific research, the features of the rich expressiveness of the Uzbek language, the facets of subtle meaning are expressed in scientific feedback based on the study of our unique spiritual heritage created in our national language. We think that the reader who got acquainted with this book and articles will once again instill in his mind the feeling of attention and respect for our native language.

Uzbek, one of the oldest and richest languages in the world, is a symbol of national identity and independent statehood for our people, an invaluable spiritual wealth, a great value that occupies an extremely important place in the political-social, spiritual-educational development of our country. Over the years, our native language has acquired a solid legal basis and high status. Currently, Uzbek language is actively used in all aspects of our life – state and Society Management, interstate relations, science, education, medicine, culture and art, playing baralla from international pulpits.

In general, the future, position, prestige of the Uzbek language is not provided by anyone from abroad. Language is our greatest asset passing through our ancestors. The fact that our language will gain even higher status and prestige in the future depends on our own desire, pride, determination.
