At all times, there have been true leaders who guide society towards the right path, without whom it is impossible to imagine the development and progress of the people within society. Ravshanbek Qosimjon Ogli, the author of many wise words, is one such selfless leader in our society today. Through his books and works, he offers absolute solutions to any problems and important matters that humanity may face. Before him, there was Ali Ibn Abi Talib (May Allah bless him and grant him peace), the author of "Nasrul Laoliy" (a poem containing 40 Hadiths), who was a Caliph, a sage, and one of the four leaders of his time. Both authors' thoughts and approaches align perfectly with the teachings of the Quran and Hadith. What catches the attention is that their instructions and spiritual teachings regarding the management systems within a human which are mind and heart or divine love and lust are presented as poetry, are easily understandable and comprehensible to all.

Another noteworthy aspect is that these teachings are derived from the life of our Prophet Muhammad (Peace Be Upon Him), adding extra value to their works. Prayer of our Prophet Muhammad (PBUH): Oh Allah,Grant that my intellect prevails over my desires. There is no salvation, if my lust wins,Your anger descends upon your selfish servant, oh Allah. Many ignorants, whose desires took over their intellect. Suffering consequences of their disobedience. While the writer tells about the importance of peace and calmness in hearts, he also soothes people by mentioning that all the events and everything that take place in the world are controlled by Fair, Omnipotence and Merciful Allah. One whose faith is weak panics, Calm soul is in peace, connected to Allah. Allah will help because Allah is Merciful, Preferring to rely upon Allah.

Allah does not burden your soul beyond that it can bear,
 Approach Allah, Allah is always there.
 Ravshanbek Qosimjon Ogli's life is perfect example to others as he lives doing good even to evil. His profound concepts are vividly portrayed in his works and books, serving as a guiding light for many
 Do good to evil,
 Value the Blessings.
 Dispute never brought goodness,
 Prophets never oppressed.

A woman once threw garbage at the Prophet,
 Yet he responded with patience.
 When she fell ill, he visited her with kindness.
 The good deed is exemplary,
 It is wise to all of us.
 Every poet cares for his country and the future and development of his nation.
 It is a sign that they have a noble heart.
 You know that peace and safety,
 Is unparalleled wealth we have in our country.
 Mothers and children perish in conflict on earth,
 Their future will vanish and be destroyed.
 Our country's defenders work day and night,
 Working non-stop through hardship and difficulty.
 They are providing the nation with safety,
 Mindful people understand it.
 While the teacher's works, with their transparency, on such topics provide perfect solutions to related existing problems. They also define, with figurative images and sometimes with historical examples, that in order for people to live in peace, first and foremost, they should follow the orders determined by supporting the head of their nation. This means that the writer is one of Walis of Allah (saint or friend of Allah) that all of the Walis of Allah, in the past, reminded people to always obey the head of their nation and that Allah Himself commanded people to. ("O believers! Obey Allah and obey the Messenger and those in authority among you" "Quran Karim" "Surah An-Nisa, verse 59"). We are witnessing that the lives of those who are disobedient to these factual commands and teachings are filled with problems. One who blindly follows a leader without comparing them with a right model should seek the mistake within himself.

There is a strong pressure in the world,
 Mindful leader is perfect, scholar.
 Otherwise, they would not be chosen as a head,
 The Creator's power determines our fate.
 Leaders are to be obeyed,
 The one who was elected by the people.
 May the head of our nation be safe,
 May the Creator preserve and protect him always.

One who spared his head first,
 Secured victory for himself in battle.
 The versatile writer also writes in Aruz meter, which is becoming increasingly uncommon nowadays. His mathnawis are primarily written in Ramal Bahr meter, and the topics he writes on include sagacity, patriotism, lyrical themes, and philosophy.

Oh heart, understand the truth, also the conditions,

One who remains ever thankful shall safeguard their soul.

There is no 'me' in this vast universe; refrain from saying 'me', for the only 'me' is God, He created everything, so no doubt that everything is guest.

Obtaining benefit from these wise works can serve as a foundation for prosperity for any society. Every nation in this world is in need of a light of such people just like days need a sun and nights need a moon.
