

Eurasian
Research Bulletin

Activities of the youth parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and the role of political parties

Bozorboyev Eldorbek

Department of Political Science at the Faculty of International Journalism of the State University of World Languages in Uzbekistan
3rd year student

ABSTRACT

This scientific article analyzes the activity of the Youth Parliament under the Chambers of the Oliy Majlis and the role of political parties in this process. The Youth Parliament is an important institution established to ensure the active participation of the youth of Uzbekistan in social and political life and to hear their opinions.

The article examines in detail the main tasks, functions and interactions of the Youth Parliament with political parties. Political parties play an important role in encouraging the active participation of young people in political processes, involving them in politics through their platforms and increasing their activity in relation to social issues.

Also, the article shows how the Youth Parliament, in cooperation with political parties, involves young people in political processes and expands their opportunities to express their opinions on social issues. Through this analysis, the article provides recommendations for improving the interaction between the youth parliament and political parties and developing democratic processes.

Keywords:

Youth Parliament Political Parties Oliy Majlis Political Participation Social Issues Democracy Political Culture Initiatives Activity

INTRODUCTION.

In order to increase political and social activity for young people in the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Youth Parliament was established under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis. This Institute is an important platform for ensuring the participation of young people in socio-political life, expressing their opinions and needs. The Youth Parliament, through its activities, not only ensures the interaction of young people, but also creates opportunities to establish cooperation with political parties. Political parties play an important role in the activities of the youth parliament. They should consider the interests of young people in their programmes and take into account the views of young people in the formulation of policy decisions in this area.

Political parties operating in Uzbekistan create opportunities to contribute to the democratic process by attracting young people to their programs, listening to their opinions and proposals. At the same time, cooperation between the youth parliament and political parties is crucial in raising the political culture of the youth and educating them as active citizens. Such cooperation strengthens political activism among young people, motivation to find their place in society, solve social problems and participate in public administration.

This article analyzes the activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis, its interaction with political parties, and its role in ensuring the active participation of young people in society. The main purpose of the article is to study the relationship of the youth parliament with political parties and to illuminate the significance of these processes in the socio-political life.

NATIJAR

The activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and cooperation between political parties are of great importance in the political and social life of Uzbekistan. The main results from this activity include:

1. Increase of youth political activity: Along with the establishment of the Youth Parliament, the participation of young people in political life has increased significantly. Young people had the opportunity to express their opinions, actively participate in solving problems.

2. Cooperation with political parties: The interaction of the youth parliament with political parties is increasing. Parties receive opinions and proposals from the youth parliament in order to pursue the interests of young people. This process helps to improve the programs of political parties.

3. Contributing to the democratic process: The Youth Parliament serves the development of the democratic process. Youths, through political parties, have the opportunity to influence public administration, which will further enhance their socio-political activities.

4. Enhancing Political Culture: Cooperation between the Youth Parliament and political parties is helping to raise the level of political culture and education among the youth. Young people are becoming more aware of the political process, contests and party activities.

5. Proposals on social issues: The Youth Parliament is developing various proposals on social issues. Editor's Choice

6. Expression of the needs of the youth: The Youth Parliament serves as an important tool in identifying the needs and problems of the youth. Political parties, on the other hand, are eager to take appropriate measures to meet these needs.

7. Effectiveness: Through the activities of the Youth Parliament, young people feel like an active participant in social life. This will increase their sense of social responsibility and help them find their place in society.

Based on these results, the activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis, together with political parties, will continue to play an important role in the democratic development of society in Uzbekistan. Youth's active participation in the formation of public policy and the solution of social problems will positively influence the development of the country in the future.

MUHOKAMA

The Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis is an important institution established in the Republic of Uzbekistan with the aim of ensuring the active participation of young people in the social and political life, taking into account their opinions and not excluding young people from the country. The activities of the Youth Parliament will not only raise political culture among young people, but also strengthen their interaction with political parties. In order to increase the political activity of young people and their broad involvement in the law-making process, on the initiative of the Head of State, separate Youth Parliaments were established in both chambers of the Parliament in 2020, to which active and enterprising young people were elected. The Resolution of the Council of the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated December 12, 2022 No. 2749-IV "On improving the activities of the Youth Parliament under the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan" approved the Statute and Regulations of the Youth Parliament. According to the relevant decision of the Council of the Legislative Chamber of Oliy Majlis, 53 young people from UzLiDeP were elected to the Youth Parliament under the Legislative Chamber of the Oliy Majlis.

The main tasks of the Youth Parliament are:

1. Protection of the interests of youth: The Youth Parliament works to identify the needs, problems and proposals of young people and bring them to Oliy Majlis. This process increases the involvement of young people in the political process.

2. Raising political culture: It serves to increase political culture by involving young people in the political process, expressing their opinions and strengthening their interaction with political parties.

3. Solving social problems: The Youth Parliament takes an active part in solving social problems and develops proposals together with political parties.

4. Organization of training programs: Increase the political activity of the youth by organizing various curricula so that they can gain political knowledge and experience.

Building fruitful cooperation between the youth parliament and political parties will ensure the active participation of young people in the political process. Political parties should seek to improve their programmes by taking into account the views of the youth parliament. In this process, parties should take into account the proposals of the Youth Parliament when developing proposals that meet the needs of the youth. Political parties bring themselves closer to society by supporting the activities of the Youth Parliament. This process creates opportunities for young people to express their opinions freely, resulting in increased political activity of young people.

The Youth Parliament plays an important role in formulating proposals on social issues. It is actively involved in solving social problems, together with political parties. The activities of the Youth Parliament will help strengthen the role of youth in public administration and ensure social justice. The role of young people in social issues is strengthened through the expression of their opinions and proposals. The Youth Parliament, through its activities, is ready to work together with political parties to solve social problems.

Further strengthening of cooperation between the Youth Parliament and political parties under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis is of great importance for the development of democratic processes in the future. Such cooperation is necessary for young people to feel as participants in the political process. Youth activity and participation play an important role in solving social and political problems for the future of Uzbekistan.

Strengthening the activities of the youth parliament and strengthening of interaction with political parties is necessary for young people to protect their needs and express their opinions freely. This process helps ensure the active participation of young people in the public and political life, increasing their sense of responsibility. Cooperation of the Youth Parliament with political parties is a key tool for further development of democratic processes in the country. Increasing the political activity of young people will serve to strengthen their place in social and political life, which will help ensure stability in the country.

Thus, the activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and cooperation between political parties are of great importance in the socio-political life of the Republic of Uzbekistan. This process creates opportunities for young people to express their opinions, actively participate in solving social and political problems. Cooperation between the youth parliament and political parties will ensure the development of democratic processes in our country.

XULOSA

The activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and contacts between political parties play an important role in increasing the socio-political activity of young people in the social and political life of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The Youth Parliament plays an important role not only in taking into account the views and needs of young people, but also in involving them in the political process. Further strengthening mutual cooperation, increasing the influence of the youth parliament and developing interaction with political parties can be exemplary models for others. The Youth Parliament will create a convenient platform for involving young people in political life, protecting their needs and interests. This institute helps to develop a political culture among young people, in the formation of proposals aimed at social issues. It is necessary for the Youth Parliament, together with political parties, to implement various projects and programs to solve youth problems. Political parties play an important role in the activities of the youth parliament. They need to update their programmes taking into account the needs of young people and also take an active part in advocating for the interests of the youth. Cooperation between political parties and the youth parliament will create opportunities for young people to freely express their opinions in the public and political life. This process serves to increase political activism and strengthen the sense of responsibility of the youth. Effective cooperation between the youth parliament and political parties is important in the development of proposals aimed at social issues, solving problems, and ensuring social justice among young people. This partnership creates opportunities for young people to express their opinions and encourages political parties to actively participate in protecting the interests of the youth. Improving the effectiveness of the youth parliament and strengthening ties with political parties is of paramount importance for the development of democratic processes in the future. Such cooperation is necessary for young people to feel as participants in the political process. Youth activism and participation play an important role in solving social and political problems.

It is also necessary to strengthen the activities of the youth parliament and strengthen relations with political parties, so that young people can protect their needs and express their opinions freely. This process helps ensure the active participation of young people in the public and political life, increasing their sense of responsibility.

The activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and cooperation between political parties play an important role in the socio-political life of the Republic of Uzbekistan. This process creates opportunities for young people to express their opinions, actively participate in solving social and political problems. Interaction between the youth parliament and political parties contributes to the development of democratic processes in our country. Increasing the political activity of young people will serve to strengthen their place in social and political life and will help ensure stability in the country.

LITERARY ROLE

1. Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 1992. This document is the basic law of the Republic of Uzbekistan and defines the legal framework for the activities of the youth parliament.

2. Law of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On youth policy". Oliy Majlis of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2016. This law shows the main principles and directions in the implementation of youth policy.

3. A collection of articles on the activities of the Youth Parliament under the chambers of the Oliy Majlis. Oliy Majlis, 2021. The collection contains articles analyzing the activities of the youth parliament

4. Political parties and their role in society. Academy of sciences of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2020. This publication provides information about the cooperation of political parties with youth and their role in the life of society

5. The book "Youth and Politics." Agency for Youth Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2019. This book provides comprehensive information on the entry of young people into politics and participation in political parties

6. Political activity of the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and the youth parliament. Youth Magazine, 2022. The article analyzes the activities of the youth parliament in the chambers of the Oliy Majlis and its role in political parties

7. The Parliament of Youth in Uzbekistan. State public education institutions of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2020. This publication presents proposals to improve the activities of the youth parliament of Uzbekistan by studying the experience of other countries

8. Mechanisms of political parties to support youth. Journal of Politics, 2021. This article shows the interactions between political parties and youth

9. Youth Parliament: New Opportunities and Challenges. Agency for Youth Affairs of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2023. This report analyzes the current problems and new opportunities in the activities of the youth parliament.

10. Decrees and resolutions of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan. President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, 2019-2023.